Call-In Energy Bill Consultations

Personalized recommendations to reduce your energy bill

The Citizens Utility Board (CUB) of Minnesota is a nonprofit organization that advocates for affordable, reliable, and clean energy. As a consumer advocate, CUB provides free energy bill consultations to Minnesota households.

A consultation saves the average household $150 annually and people who have higher-than-average bills can save much more.

Households can bring any questions they may have about their energy bills and CUB's expert staff will:

- Highlight ways to reduce energy consumption,
- Share information about programs and rebates, and
- Provide information on income-based assistance.

Individuals can provide copies of their natural gas and electric bills ahead of time. A consultation can be done by phone or video call and takes about 30 minutes.

This service is available to all Minnesotans, free of charge.
